

American Airlines Airport Lounges

and those accessible to some AA passengers

Consolidated by Charlie Plesums

Intro

Every few months I get an email from American Airlines bragging that they are refurbishing their Admiral's Clubs. Great, I am sure the new marble will be nice, but that won't change my plans for this airport. While I am connecting to a different terminal, or a different gate at the far end of the airport, I would rather know WHERE the nearest club is. Once I am in the club and have a WiFi connection, I can use their web site to confirm where I am, but they don't understand that their web site is no help in FINDING their clubs, especially when rushing between gates. Therefore I have created a PDF copy of this page that you can save on your smart phone.

I have harvested this data from multiple locations. I hope it is right - I will be using it myself, but I don't get to all the airports. If you can suggest improvements or corrections, please drop me a note to Charlie@Plesums.com. In general I focused on locations rather than operating hours, since that is very subject to change, and is not likely to be closed while I am waiting for a connecting flight.
